He stress-ed the need of faith, confidence and courage in carrying out the plens of the revolutionary NRA proceedings. He said that the people should feel honored to have the privilege of participating in the drive.

He asserted that the three greatest wars in the history of the nation were the Revolution-ary War, the war between the States, and the NRA War, which demanded not nillions and men, but an aroused citizenry with the will to, win. He then presented Judge Rufus Hardy, to introduce the speaker of the evening,

The former congressman de-clared that the people of the United States were engaged in a very peculiar campaign, not one very peculiar campaign, not one of personalities and politics, but one of education. He declared that it was particularly fortunate that Texas had a leading part in the formation of the new policies, asserting that the Texas representation in Congress was the equal of any. New Subscribers Being Added to The Daily Sun

For the past few weeks there has been a campaign on for new subscriptions to the Daily Sun, and the carrier boys have been successful in getting some new subscribers, regardless of how thoroughly the Daily Sun already covers Corsicana.

There is never a let-up by the carrier boys in giving the best of metropolitan delivery service to their subscribers and to solicit new subscriptions wherever they can find them.

Extending Territory

In addition to the activity of the Daily Sun in the city there have been added three new delivery systems to the rural sections of the community. The Daily Sun is the first daily paper to reach these sections, thereby giving the public a more widely circulated newspaper for the benefit of the subscribers in the new extended trade territory and for the advertisers as well.

The subscribers to the Daily Sun are very complimentary to their paper with the following remark made time and again:

"By taking the Daily Sun we get all that one could expect in a modern newspaper. We not only get everything other papers might have, but in addition, get all of the local news in which we are all more interested than anything else.

Also, by getting the news of the world in the Daily Sun every evening through the Full Leased Wire Associated Press Service, we get the news from twelve to eighteen hours earlier than any other paper."

TEXAS SENATOR SAYS HE

A broad grin was Senator Tom Connally's answer to a reporter's question about his reaction to Senator Huey Long's criticism of government politics and other public issues at the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention in Milwaukee recently. The senator and a party of Marlin friends arrived in Corsicana late Thursday where the Texas senator was scheduled to be the principal speaker at an "NRA Jubilee" Thursday night.

Thursday night.
The senator announced that the senatorial investigation of the election of Senator J. H. Overton junior member of the upper huse from Louisians, would be resumed in New Orleans on October 16. He refused to make further comment, stating that it might be taken that his attitude was prejudicial. Connally is the chairman of the investigating body.

Concerning the success of the Concerning the success of the NRA movement, Senator Connelly said that Washington officials were highly optimistic and had a high-powered publicity staff of more than a hundred men pushing the campaign to the limit. He said that the plan was so revolutionary that it would take a few weeks to determine its success, and that there would naturally be numerous troublesome angles.

The senator said that department of Agriculture officials had assured him several days ago that the checks for the destroyed cotton acreage would be forthcoming immediately. He reported that he had another telegram from them Thursday stating that the checks would be issued in thousands daily by the end of the first week in September. He said it was his understanding that the checks were being issued alpha-hetically and not by states checks were being issued alpha-betically and not by states, but that Texas was getting about one out of every four checks issued.

It's tough when a United States Senator cannot go out for an evening to enjoy himself and, incidentally, aid the sweet cause of charity without finishing up at the losing end of a one-round fracas with a black eye and minor abrasions. No wonder Senator Huey P. Long of Louisiana waxed wrought. There he was just seeking a little relaxation at the exclusive Bath Club at Sands Point, Long Island, when, sez he, without rhyme or reason he was "ganged" by a group of men armed with knives and blackjacks. Being a good general, the Senator retreated, as did George Washington when confronted with a superior British force 157 years earlier, but the gentleman from Louisiana will fight another day if only he can find the snswer to the question "Who socked Huey?"

Revealed Strange Baby Market

MISS HELEN SHAEFFER.

Disclosures that a "market" wherein babies are sold for adoption for sums ranging from $70 to $100 in Tules, Okla., were recently made by Cammissioner of Charities and Corrections Mabel Bassett, to whose notice the inside was brought by Miss Helen Schaeffer, director of the local Children's Service Bureau. Five cases of "bought" adoptions were uncovered in the ensuing investigation and at least a dozen others are aspected to be brought to light. Three physicians are implicated, it being charged that they "sold" the babies of unwed mothers, too poor to pay their fees, to defray houghtalization casts.

DRINK FO R BEAUTY.

If you drink a lot (of certain healthful drinks) it will help you on your road to beauty. Since a clear skin, clear bright eyes, and even a sunny disposition depend upon a good liver, and such unromantic things as healthy kidneys, it is important to wash out these organs, to keep them clean and functioning properly. Six to eight glasses of clear water a day will cure more ills than you'd think possible. Six to eight glasses of water a day has been the cure of many a woman who desjpaired of her health and her looks.

Drink a little less water, and with one of your meals, drink a glass or two of buttermilk, which is wonderful for acid conditions, and which acts upon the liver and kidneys, and in itself, will clear a bad complexion. This is one of the things I advise for fat women, since you can drink enormous quantities without putting on flesh.

Besides there, there are various herb drinks, which are healthful. They go under the general classification of tizanes, they are brewed and drunk like tea, hot, sometimes, wth lemon, sometimes without. Many of them are sootning, so if you have trouble sleeping, two hot cups or going to bed will quiet you to an easy sleep. Many sweeten the stomach and again are good to drink at bedtime. Our good old dandelion tea is another brew, rather bitter perhaps, but marvelous for anyone who wants to clear a bad complexion. Try to clear a bad complexion. Try these as a part of your "liquid"

Mr. Johnson Keeps Promise.

FLORIDA STORM

Mr. Johnson was accompanied to Wortham by Judge J. S. Callicutt, an attorney of Corsicana, who introduced Mr. Johnson as "your friend and my friend." Mr. Johnson had made a hurried trip home from Washington and had just arrived a little late to fill the promise made more than a month ago to speak in Wortham at this hour. The sepaker exat this hour. The sepaker expressed his joy of being back in the old 13th Judicial District, where Wortham was the central spot then, and where he had run for office "when many thought he was too younf," where he loved the country, his own Texas, and where everybody had suffered more for four years than in war.
